"My journey has been long and difficult. I seem to have lost my way; so, I decided to stop and rest here for awhile to ponder and ask for new directions. I will also lessen my load by taking with me only what I need, and leave the rest behind to make my journey easier."

MIGISI ALCOHOL & DRUG TREATMENT CENTRE

KENORA, ONTARIO

"A Generation in Healing"

MISSION STATEMENT

To guide and support Anishinaabe People in their journey towards a holistic way of life.

PHILOSOPHY

My difficult journey of life has brought me here to cleanse my body, mind, soul and spirit. With the guidance of the Creator, I will begin to live and heal in wellness with all creations once again.

TREATMENT CENTRE

Migisi Alcohol & Drug Treatment Centre is a 14 bed facility, located on the lakefront of Matheson Bay on Wauzhushk Onigum First Nation (Rat Portage) near Kenora, Ontario. Our Centre officially opened in July 1989. Migisi is funded by Health & Welfare Canada / National Native Alcohol & Drug Abuse Program (NNADAP)
